Time for a market break!

Market Trend News would like to wish all our subscribers a very Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays! We hope you all can take a few days off and recharge your batteries.

Gold continues to make higher lows and held up well considering Fed. Chairman Powell was laying out all the interest rate hikes they plan to do in 2022. Whether it happens or not is another debate.

The world continues to be hit with Covid-19 variants, vaccination protests, supply chain issues, inflation, political instability, and energy/power problems. I don't think 2022 will be much different.

There are gold bugs predicting new highs and financial pundits commenting on a possible stock market crash that is supposed to happen soon. Who knows for sure, but market and commodity volatility is not going anywhere.

Then we have cryptocurrency, nfts, the metaverse, and other virtual spaces that seem to me like a big bubble waiting to burst. Good luck to all that virtually venture!

Stay safe, and enjoy time with family!

HALLGARTEN & COMPANY Colonial Coal Intl: Sharks Begin to Circle

Colonial Coal Presentation

Epstein Research Report

Greening steel - 30yr challenge

Coking Gold - Doomberg

When will steel go green?

C olonial Coal (CAD TSX-V) closed at $2.78 yesterday. It continues to set higher lows but on this most recent dip it wasn't by much! Volume has decreased and it has closed up two days in a row. The $2.75 area is slowly drying up and we will see how many traders will book profits in December. Only a few trading days left and then we are in 2022.

On December 9th, just before the Dec. 14th AGM, the company announced that their CFO Matthew Anderson resigned and their interm CFO would be Andrea Yuan. Hmmmm..... Her LinkedIn Profile is interesting, maybe she was brought on board to help with Chinese suitors? It is fun to speculate.

Metallurgical Coal (steel making coal) continues to trade at high prices and I'm holding on tight to my shares hoping Colonial Coal can get a deal done soon. Open bid price?

Canaccord Research - November 16th John Kaiser's thoughts - Sept. 9th

F ury Gold Mines (FURY TSX) announced on December 6th that they sold their Homestake Ridge project to Dolly Varden (DV TSX-V). Fury will get $5 Million in cash and 76,504,590 common shares of Dolly Varden. Upon completion of the transaction, Fury will own 36.9% of Dolly Varden on an outstanding basis.

Dec. 6th News: Dolly Varden and Fury to Consolidate Emerging Canadian Silver-Gold....

On December 1st the company announced more drill results from their Committee Bay project in Nunavut. This news included 10.0m of 13.93 g/t gold, 3.0m of 18.67g/t gold and 1.0m of 23.2g/t gold.

With solid management, more $$ in the till, and constant drilling, 2022 should be an interesting year for Fury.
